

He Brings Me Flowers, But is That Enough?

He brings me flowers to win my heart
He brings me truthfulness to win my trust

He willingly carries my purse in public
He lovingly carries my pain in private

He remembers our special days
He remembers to pick up the kids

He makes reservations for Valentine's Day
He cooks dinner when I've had a bad day

He keeps my picture on his phone
He keeps my needs in his heart

He makes promises of good times
He keeps his promises in bad times

He tells me he loves me
He shows me he loves me
